Post Care Support Services provides case management, counselling, information and advocacy to support young people and adults who have lived in care and/or were placed under the Guardianship of the Chief Executive of the Department for Child Protection in South Australia as a child, for more than six months. Post Care Support Services is a free and voluntary service for young people and adults who are 16.5 years old and over. Adults and young people can either self-refer or be referred by an agency with the person's consent.

Post Care Support Service is a partnership arrangement working out of 3 organisations: Relationships Australia, Anglicare SA, and KWK (Korwar Winmil Yunti). Your information can be passed on when a worker is allocated, this is to support best match possible.

Are you okay for your information to be shared with your allocated worker, if they are outside of Relationships Australia?
